It is the Libraries' mission to provide access to as many resources as possible to support curriculum-related teaching, research, and scholarly communication to our off-campus students.
Distance Education Document and Book Delivery

Requesting Books and Articles
Only books owned by the IU-Bloomington libraries will be sent. Check IUCAT to determine if one of the IU-Bloomington libraries owns the book. To request books and articles, go to https://www.dds.iub.edu/login.html. Log on with your network ID and password. Scroll down to “Distance Education Service Requests.”

Loan Periods
Graduate students may borrow circulating materials for 120 days. Undergraduate students may borrow circulating materials for 45 days. There are exceptions (e.g., books from the Undergraduate Library circulate for 14 days to all categories of borrowers.)

Recalls
Books are subject to be recalled (returned to the library earlier than the due date) if requested by another person. In this case, the book MUST BE RETURNED (or postmarked) BY THE RECALL DUE DATE, or a fine of $25 will be assessed.

Renewals
A book may be renewed if another person has not requested it. Renewals may be made by phone (812) 855-4673, electronically, or in person. Renewals will NOT be accepted by fax.

Delivery
All loaned materials will be delivered to your home address, your post office box, or the address on your request form via US Media Rate. Photocopied material can be retrieved below the location where you entered your requests, by clicking on “View/Download Electronically Delivered Requests.” Delivery of Bloomington-owned materials usually takes one to two weeks, so plan accordingly. Articles that have to be obtained from another library or that must be delivered outside the U.S. will take longer. (We do not borrow books from other libraries.)

Returning Materials
Materials may be returned in person, by U.S. mail or Courier. The borrower is responsible for the safe return of materials to the library. The borrower will be charged for any fines related to materials that are lost in the mail. It is strongly suggested that you insure any materials you return for at least $100. The postmark is considered the return date. Please mail to: Customer and Access Services Dept., Main Library, E164, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN 47405.

Charges
There are no charges for borrowing books or receiving articles at this time. However, the borrower is responsible for the cost of return.

Fines and Fees
Overdue fines are $0.25 per day per book. There is a $25 fine for recalled books that are received or postmarked after the recall due date. Documents/articles are $5 each if fax service is requested. Fees will be assessed for lost or damaged materials. All fines and fees will be billed through the IU Bursar’s Office.

Who May Use This Service?

Document Delivery/Interlibrary loan is a service offered through the Herman B Wells Library Customer and Access Services Department to Indiana University - Bloomington faculty, students, and staff who are engaged in research. The conditions of this service are set by the Interlibrary Loan Code of the American Library Association and by regulations of individual lending libraries.

Time Required

The time to receive an item varies; 70% of articles and 55% of books are received in 7 days or less. When several libraries must be contacted before an available copy is located, the process may take longer. Requests that must be sent internationally usually take considerably longer than this average.

Duration of Loans

The loan period for borrowed material is set by the lending library and is indicated on a date due slip in the book. The maximum loan period is given; please use the material within that time period. In the interest of maintaining good relations with lending libraries, due dates must be honored. Returnable material will be checked out through the Herman B Wells Library Research Collections Circulation Counter and should be returned there. Requestors will be billed for non-returned overdue items and library privileges may be suspended until materials are returned. If a borrower continually disregards due dates, it may be necessary to refuse further service.

Restrictions on Use

Indiana University Libraries is bound by any restriction on use imposed by the lending library. Some libraries require that the materials they lend be used in the borrowing library only. Some do not allow photocopying. Some require the signature of readers of unpublished dissertations. The requestor should not let others use the borrowed books unless special arrangements have been made.

Recently Published Books

It is often difficult to borrow recently published books on interlibrary loan because they are in demand at the libraries owning them. You may wish to suggest the purchase of such materials for the IUL collections.

Other Policy Information

As a general policy, we will not borrow any book available in a library on the Bloomington campus. Items which cannot be located by those libraries may be requested through Document Delivery Services.

Please submit Document Delivery requests through our web site at https://www.dds.iub.edu/illiad/logon.html. If you experience difficulties, please call (812) 855-6549 and ask for assistance.

Photocopied material can be received via our web site. An e-mail message will be sent to the requestor with instruction as to how to retrieve the document. Loans will be delivered to Campus Mail addresses or notification for picking up an item will be sent to your IU e-mail address. Overdues and recalls will also be sent to your e-mail account.

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY: Distance Learning. Find Articles

http://www.lib.iastate.edu/class/distlearn/find_articles.html

Learn How to Find Articles -- this handy tutorial covers everything you need to know about finding full-text articles from the ISU e-Library, as well as how to get articles the ISU Library doesn't own.

Indexes & Abstracts -- these indexes will help you find articles on just about any topic. Many of the indexes include a description, letting you know the subject areas and years that are covered. Make sure to read the Find Articles tutorial if you need general help. If you're not sure which index to choose for your topic, you can always Ask a Librarian!

e-Journals list -- you can also browse the list of full-text e-journals; many of these will have their own unique search system. See the Find Articles tutorial if you need help in finding articles by browsing e-journals.

Get what you need! You'll find many of our articles full-text and online, as described above. By using Interlibrary Loan, you can also request articles that the ISU Library doesn't own be sent to you, for free. To use Interlibrary Loan, you'll need your ISUCard. For a fee, you can use Document Delivery, to pay to have copies of print articles the Library owns (but that are not full-text online) be sent to you.
ISU Library Catalog -- use the ISU Library Catalog to find books and much more in our collections. To find only electronic books, search the Library Catalog using a General Keyword search, and the terms such as:

- electronic book and business will find e-books on business topics
- electronic books and education will find e-books on education topics

Another way to find electronic books in the ISU online collections is to browse by collections. Once you have an active ISUCard and have set your Library PIN, you can also login to use the My Account feature within the ISU Library catalog. This allows you to create and save lists, see what you have checked out, and so on.

Google Book Search - allows you to search online for books in virtually any subject area. Includes excerpted reviews, occasional full-text (especially for non-copyrighted books) or limited "pre-views" of other books, and powerful full-text search ("search in this book") features. Also includes direct links for purchasing books from Amazon, Barnes & Noble, and other online vendors, as well as direct links to WorldCat (see below) for finding books in libraries nearest you.

NetLibrary is a growing collection of electronic books available via the ISU Library, with an emphasis in computer science, business, and education. Note that you do need to set up an account within NetLibrary before you can use it. If you can't come to the ISU campus to set up your account, you can email staff at the ISU Library's Circulation Desk and set up your account that way.

WorldCat -- use this free database to find books, dissertations, and more in thousands of library collections worldwide. You can find materials in libraries closest to you! Alternatively, you can use the ISU Library’s version of WorldCat, which will allow you to use an Interlibrary Loan link to request items.

Get what you need! You’ll find a number of books full-text and online, as described above. By using Interlibrary Loan, you can also request to borrow books that the ISU Library doesn’t own be sent to you, for free. To use Interlibrary Loan, you’ll need an active ISU Card. By using Document Delivery, you can pay to have books the Library owns but that are not full-text online be sent to you.

Requesting Materials: Document Delivery Services for Distance Education Students, Faculty, and Researchers at a Distance

Distance Education Students and Faculty

Distance education students and faculty who do not live in Chapel Hill or Carrboro may request delivery of books and photocopied articles from UNC-Chapel Hill or other locations. To request materials, you must register for the Interlibrary Loan Borrowing (ILB) Service. Log on with your UNC Onyen and password and complete the first-time user registration form. On the registration form choose DISTANCE EDUCATION as your "Status."

When completing the request form, enter the course number in the Additional Notes field. For example, "Carolina Courses Online: Art31."

Books are mailed to you via the U.S. postal service and return postage is included. Photocopies are delivered electronically to your ILB account. Materials requested from other libraries will take longer to obtain, so please be sure to enter the date by which you need the item to allow sufficient time. There is no charge for this document delivery service.

Books will be checked out to your account and must be received by the ILB Office by the due date in order to avoid late fines. Books that have no renewal restrictions may be renewed online through your ILB account. Please renew books two to three days before they are due.

Researchers at a Distance

Currently enrolled UNC students and current faculty, who are researching at a distance from Chapel Hill (both nationally and internationally), may request materials from UNC-Chapel Hill. To request materials, you must register for the Interlibrary Loan Borrowing (ILB) Service. Log on with your UNC Onyen and password and complete the first-time user registration form.

When completing the request form, be sure to note in the Additional Notes field that you are researching at a distance.

Books are mailed only within the contiguous United States via the U.S. Postal Service. Books will be checked out to your account and must be received by the ILB Office by the due date in order to avoid late fines. Study Abroad in China Research Tutorial

3. Conducting Research in China
4. Accessing UNC’s Resources While Abroad

Last updated: 08_09_2007
Academic Libraries in China

Many colleges and universities across China maintain large libraries. Some things about the libraries will seem very familiar to you, and others may surprise you. UNC’s Study Abroad Office encourages students to choose their study abroad experiences from its list of approved programs. Because of the large number and variety of libraries in China, this tutorial is tailored toward the libraries and other information resources UNC students will likely use in these programs. However, the skills you use in this tutorial will help you learn to navigate information resources as well.

Resources that you find in Chinese university libraries are similar to those at UNC-Chapel Hill’s libraries. For example, numerous UNC students have studied at Chinese University of Hong Kong, and have found its library quite similar to UNC’s. If you look at its Web page, you will see links to the catalog, e-journals, many of the same databases that you have used at UNC, and the same MyLibrary system that you can use to view your library account.

You may encounter many differences from UNC-Chapel Hill’s libraries, especially if you are studying in mainland China. For instance, you may only be allowed to have a small number of books at once, or you may have to ask a librarian to give you certain materials. It’s a good idea to read your university library’s rules thoroughly before you go for the first time. Don’t hesitate to contact UNC’s librarians or ask a librarian at the library you’re visiting for help! If you have more in-depth questions, you can contact the Libraries’ Chinese-language specialist, Hsi-Chu Bolick.
Accessing Resources at UNC

Many of the same information resources you relied on in Chapel Hill are available when you are conducting research abroad.

In this section you will learn about:

- How to access the libraries' Web resources abroad
- UNC resources you may find useful while studying abroad
Using Electronic Resources for Study Abroad Research

Fishing expeditions

Journal article databases allow you to perform complex searches within a limited scope of material. Einstein QuickStart and Google Scholar are two tools that let you search very broadly but with less precision. This can be helpful early in the research process. Be sure to set your preferences in Google Scholar so you can link to NU resources.

Use specialized databases to find material that is in research periodicals. Remember, Not all database have full text of the articles they index. Use the Find it @ NU button to find the full article.
