New Employee Orientation Program (NEOP)

Welcome to the UCI Libraries!

The UCI Libraries' New Employee Orientation Program (NEOP) will introduce you to the organization and prepare you for success in your vital role at the Libraries, the intellectual crossroads of the UCI community. Thank you for joining our dynamic organization and supporting our efforts to develop and share knowledge on campus and beyond. We look forward to your future success!

The NEOP consists of two parts:
Part I: Checklists & Reference Guide
Part II: Presentation Modules

Please view a welcome message from Gerald J. Munoff, University Librarian.

NEOP Part II

Part II includes a series of four modules is intended to familiarize you with the work of the UCI Libraries as an organization. These modules explain the Libraries’ vision, plans, and culture and review the work of our divisions and departments.

Module 1: Introduction to the UCI Libraries: Developing & Sharing Knowledge
Module 2: Library Administration, Administrative Services & Technical Services
Module 3: Collections & Public Services
Module 4: Team/Committees, E-Resources, Emergency Preparedness & the Libraries’ Values
Orientation for New Libraries Employees

Congratulations on your new hire and welcome to the University Libraries!

You know the basics of your new position but there's so much more to learn as you become a member of the Libraries Community. We've put together some procedures and resources to get you oriented to the Libraries, the University and the Boulder Community. To get started, please use the links to the left.

Welcome aboard!
New Employee Orientation

Orientation provides new employees with an overview of the University's and the Libraries' culture that assures an understanding of policies and procedures necessary to function efficiently in the environment. Orientation is addressed at various levels: Libraries, University and Department.

All newly hired faculty and staff must report to the Libraries' Human Resources Department at 8:00 a.m. on their first day of employment for Libraries' orientation (New Employee Orientation), which is designed to:

- Supplement the job-related orientation provided by the unit/department;
- Provide an overview of the Libraries' organization and its culture;
- Introduce you to key personnel/groups and the roles that they play in the organization; and
- Assure an understanding of policies and procedures necessary to function efficiently.

At that time they will also complete the online Form I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification, E-Verify, and review the information in the New Employee Orientation presentation and checklist. The checklist may be accessed online so that you may read further about the policies, benefits and services available to you as a University of Georgia employee.

All newly hired employees (faculty, staff, temporary, and student workers) should also complete the University of Georgia's online orientation on their first day of employment. All of the necessary employment forms and policy information, a benefits overview, and basic Right to Know information are contained in the orientation session. After completing the online orientation, please bring all of the completed forms to the Libraries' Human Resources Department, so that your employment paperwork can be finalized and submitted to the appropriate UGA department.

Should you need specific information about your individual benefits profile, you are encouraged to attend a Q & A session held the first and third Monday of each month from 9:00 - 10:30 a.m. by the University's Employee Benefits Department. These sessions are held in the Employee Training & Development Center located on Mitchell Street.

In addition, programs are being planned that reacquaint staff on a continuous basis with the workplace by providing practical information sessions on topics that directly impact work performance and related compensation.
Library Welcoming and Orientation

Getting a new employee off to a good start can make a big difference in how welcome they will feel and it will improve their ability to quickly become effective in their position. Do all that you can to make the “on boarding” process as smooth as possible for them by officially welcoming and orientating your new employee to your part of the organization.

Three Main areas of orientation:

Organizational Level Orientation

New employees need to understand the organizational vision, culture and the ongoing strategy for The Library. An overview must be provided by the leadership within the organization.

- Mike Ridley will meet with the employee within their first week if possible to provide the U of G vision, explain the role of the CIO and to speak about The Library in context with CCS and Organizational Services. 30 – 45 minutes.
- One Associate Chief, Helen, or Catherine will meet with the employee within their first week if possible, to provide insight into The Library’s overall relationship with the campus, the Library vision, culture, integrated plan and their role as Associate Chief Librarian. 30 – 45 minutes.

Directorate Level Organization (The Library and Organizational Services)

Additional meetings and plans will be scheduled specific to the new employee’s role so that they can quickly understand the various Library service areas and how their role and service area fit within the overall organization. It will also be important for new employees to learn about Organizational Services support.

- Within the first month, the new employee will meet with each of the Managers to understand their service areas – 30 minutes for each (up to ? meetings)
- Within the first month, the new employee will spend time in the front line service area(s) to better understand our client needs and how we provide them with support
  - Schedule a meeting with ? and then assign new employee to one of the Staff.
- Within the first month the new employee will meet with the AD of Organizational Services to get an overview of the support services offered
Functional Development (position within the Department)

- The New Employee should meet with their Manager within the first week to discuss their role and how they can get support – the discussion should include outline of key responsibilities as well as the regular responsibilities and expectations. An outline of progression to learn and integrate into role can be provided. Job shadowing and info about things they need to do specific to their role can be identified.
- Orientation program – one staff member will be assigned to the new employee, to begin on their first day, to provide extra support. This will include a more involved orientation for the first week. Lunch the first day, events around campus, a campus walking tour, answering any other questions that come up if they are able. A regular ‘check in’ role beyond that for the first month.
