Arrival Date: ________________________________________________

- Announce new employee’s arrival date, position, duties to branch staff
- Prepare the work area e.g. clean out desk and files, review remaining materials for appropriateness
- Gather and have available written materials that pertain specifically to the new employee’s immediate work environment and responsibilities, including:
  - Branch staff list/organization chart with basic job responsibilities of each person
  - Email and telephone lists for staff
  - Job description
  - Diagram of evacuation route for building
  - U of S and Saskatoon telephone directories
  - Parking information
  - Collective agreement (can be found on the HRD website)
  - Appropriate professional organizations
- Ensure basic office supplies are available
- Order keys (can be obtained from Tammy Hornung)
- Install telephone or complete change order (arrangements to be made by Tammy Hornung)
- Arrange for computer and software installation. Email and system orientation will be arranged by the HR Manager as part of the employee’s orientation.

October 2008
New Employee Orientation Checklist

The Orientation and Retirement Team created this checklist to use once a new employee has been hired. Included on the checklist are things to cover beyond the needs of a specific position. We hope you find it helpful and we’d like to make it even more useful so send us any comments or suggestions.

The University’s Human Resources, the Libraries’ Human Resources, supervisor and new employee all have responsibilities for the successful transition of a new hire.

<thead>
<tr>
<th>S=Supervisor</th>
<th>LHR=Libraries Human Resources</th>
<th>E=Employee</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Once a person is hired

| LHR ___ | Send a welcoming letter along with a campus map. Includes contact information for any questions. Lets new hire know what kind of identification she will need to bring in to complete her paperwork. |
| LHR ___ | Send notice of hire and first day to include in LINKS |
| S ___ | Send a welcome note signed by everyone in the department |
| S ___ | If the person is relocating send a city map and offer the names of realtors and rental agencies. |
| S ___ | Give the person contact information for any questions not related to HR. |
| S ___ | Give work and office phone numbers and e-mail addresses of anyone willing to assist in the transition (moving, orienting them to new location, etc). |

Before the person begins

| LHR ___ | Request a UserID a few days before the new hire arrives and ask UTS to send the new employee’s email username to you. UTS won’t set it up more than a few days before the effective date. |
| LHR ___ | Sends information about parking decal |
| LHR ___ | Tells supervisor new hire’s email address. Communicates phone number and e-mail address to Circulation for incident report emails, Communications for LINKS distribution list, Dean’s Administrative Assistant, and Computing Services for Contacts webpage. |
| S ___ | Communicate with the new hire about logistical issues (parking, when and where to report, work schedule/hours). Offer to make referrals to stores, car repair, insurance agents, dry cleaners, credit unions, etc. |
| S ___ | Assess immediate equipment needs |
| S ___ | Work with Maggie Bergmans for phone and voicemail requests. Give phone number to LHR for further distribution. |
| S ___ | Work with Cherrie Brown if keys are needed. |
S _____ If Millennium client access is required consult with ILS System Administrator regarding logons.

S _____ Inform Director of Administrative Services to have a mentor assigned if new hire is in a tenure-track position.

S _____ Consider sending announcement to LINKS with a little more description of the position (if appropriate), previous work experience, and educational background.

S _____ Inform department members when new employee is expected to relocate and begin work.

S _____ Prepare work space
   ___ Clean office space and stock with any essential office supplies
   ___ Make a copy of the most recent library roster
   ___ Make arrangements the first week for breaks and lunch.

Assemble written materials to give to the new employee (or if on Libraries webpages or intranet communicate where materials can be found)
   ___ organizational history
   ___ mission statement
   ___ vision statement
   ___ organizational charts
   ___ employee handbook
   ___ Faculty Manual (university)
   ___ Annual reports
   ___ operations manual
   ___ maps (library locations, campus)
   ___ library publications
   ___ telephone and email directory ___ list / directory of key people ___ pay schedule (also covered by LHR)
   ___ job description
   ___ training program schedule

S _____ Make arrangements for some breaks and lunches the first week.

S _____ Consider assigning a buddy.

S _____ When you get new employee’s UserID, you will need to get the Libraries Computing Services to set up a profile on the computer she/he will be using.

Define the amount of authority the new employee has during the first three months

First Month

E ____ “Tour” the intranet (Supervisor highlights any key documents)

E ____ After new employee receives a CarolinaCard, contact Library Computing Services (Tony Branch) and give him your UserID and password so new employee can be added to Active Directory. Expect to be in the system and be able to get a CarolinaCard within the first two weeks.

Contact Library Computing Services (Randy Heard) with the barcode so you can be entered into the back door database for swiping your card to enter Thomas Cooper Library.

E ____ If you have liaison responsibilities, take your own tour of the department/college.

S ____ or contact Reference Department

Once employee has a CarolinaCard explain library services available to the employee for work or enjoyment (Requesting materials in the catalog, PASCAL Delivers, Interlibrary Loan, Educational Films, audiobooks, Browsing Collection, Juvenile Collection)

S ____ Ask new employee what questions he/she has about:

____ the libraries
____ the university
____ the department
____ his or her job

Later

E ____ Attend the orientation and tour of libraries and Annex tour organized by the Libraries’ Orientation and Retirement Team.

E ____ Faculty positions. The Provost holds an orientation for new faculty in August. Plan on attending at least some of it. It’s a great way to meet other faculty members from across the university. You should receive an invitation http://www.sc.edu/cte/newfaculty/
