CONNECTICUT

1.b.i Includes 1,301 e-books.

CORNELL

1.a Volumes held June 30, 2008 revised to 200,301. This year's increase reflects additional available volumes, and the fact that the 2007-2008 e-book count was significantly underreported. The e-book count may include a small amount of duplication between e-book packages yet to be determined.

1.b.i Includes some manually cataloged e-books.

2 The count may include a small amount of duplication between e-book packages yet to be determined.

5 Estimate only. 2.5% of the titles in this count were estimated to be print. 1,430 of the e-titles were estimated to be non-current. Some deduping done through estimates. Decrease in print title count due to cancellations to favor electronic format over print. Increase in e-title count reflects additional available titles (including the selective addition of records for open access titles), and a more precise counting methodology.

7 Starting with 2008-2009, counts for microforms will no longer be kept up to date; reporting will be at the 2007-2008 level.

12 Starting with 2008-2009, graphics counts will no longer be kept up to date; reporting will be at the 2007-2008 level. The change reflects rounding only.

14 Starting with 2008-2009, motion picture counts will no longer be kept up to date; reporting will be at the 2007-2008 level. Video and DVD counts are now collected online vs. manually.

16.d Figure reflects shipping costs only.

30 Includes some instruction sessions for individuals.

32 Extrapolated from 12 random sampling weeks. In large part, increase reflects a greater effort to record all transactions.

33 In large part, the decrease reflects a counting error made in 2007-2008.

37 Includes 13 double major MDs and PhDs. The total for PhDs only is 58.
