Provides business services, including self-service photocopying, billing and fines, and patron registration.

Asia Collection – Org Code: MAAILB

The Asia Collection is an internationally recognized area collection incorporating collections from East, Southeast and South Asia. It provides the University community and the State with major resources on Asia for study, research and training. Selects and arranges for the acquisition of books, journals, newspapers, non-commercial publications and other print and non-print materials from and about South, Southeast and East Asia published both in Western and Asian languages. (Actual ordering and processing operations are centralized in the Collection Services departments). The collection receives materials published in 17 Asian languages as well as English and other Western languages. Emphasis of the Collections are in the social sciences and humanities disciplines, with selected material on science subjects that reflect cultural traditions. Librarians develop and maintain close contact with libraries and institutions engaged in Asia related scholarly activities throughout the world. Access to the research resources of the Asia Collection is provided through specialized reference service, instruction in the use of the collection, preparation of bibliographic aids and guides to electronic resources.

Special Collections – Org Code: MASPLB

Special Collections incorporates several discrete collections: Hawaiian, Pacific, and Rare books. Because the material collected is rare, unique, or otherwise extraordinary, these collections require special, often unique policies and procedures for acquiring, processing, storing and patron use.

This department provides the University and the State with the most comprehensive collections and services possible relating to Hawai'i and the Pacific. It is responsible for specialized collection development activities required to maintain and develop the unique and internationally acclaimed Pacific Collection (Melanesia, Micronesia, and Polynesia) and the Hawaiian Collection. The Hawaiian Collection serves as a repository for Hawai'i State documents.

These collections support the University's teaching and research emphases on Hawaiian and Pacific studies.

Provides in-depth reference and bibliographic assistance to resources in the Hawaiian and Pacific Collections and also for the Rare and other Special Collections.

Operates an automated circulation system and paging services to provide access to the Hawaiian, Pacific and other Special
