ASU Libraries Administration

ASU Libraries Administration

Our Mission: The ASU Libraries comprise settings, both virtual and physical in which to uncover, discover and learn. We provide seamless access to collections and services for students, faculty, ASU's partners, and the community to promote the New American University's goals of access, excellence, and impact. Our service-oriented staff supports virtual and physical environments that assure access to data, information, and knowledge resources, and strive to foster information competence and critical thinking skills.

The screenshot shows the UBC Library website. At the top, the UBC logo and name are on the left, and navigation links for NEWS, EVENTS, DIRECTORIES, SEARCH UBC, and myUBC LOGIN are on the right. Below this is the 'UBC Library' header with a menu: About Us, Branches, Catalogues, Journals, e-Resources, Instruction, Services for You, and Ask Us. A banner for the 'IRVING K. BARBER LEARNING CENTRE' features a collage of images showing the building and people using the facility. The main content area is titled 'Statement of Purpose and Charter of Principles'. On the left, a sidebar menu includes Home, About (with sub-items: Hours, Charter, Irving K. Barber, Building Project, Advisory Committee, Contact Us), Facilities, Programs and Services, News, Library Services & Collections. The main text describes the center's mission to be a revolutionary and evolutionary facility for intellectual, social, cultural, and economic development. It lists six key commitments: 1) A flexible and technologically advanced facility; 2) Immediate access to information and other resources; 3) 15 years of growth space for UBC's print collection; 4) Facilities for people throughout British Columbia to connect; 5) An interdisciplinary environment for integrating people, knowledge, and innovation; 6) Support for lifelong learning. The text concludes with a quote from Gordon Campbell, Premier, dated October 2002, stating: "THROUGH THIS FACILITY, WE HAVE OPENED THE DOOR OF OPPORTUNITY. THE POWER OF NEW IDEAS WILL BE AVAILABLE TO PEOPLE IN EVERY CORNER OF THE PROVINCE AND THROUGHOUT THE WORLD." The website also notes it was last modified on June 22, 2009.

Mission Statement

The Library's primary mission is to serve as the intellectual commons of the University, providing high-quality resources, services, and gateways to information to meet the needs of OSU's diverse instructional, research, and outreach programs. In accordance with the University's land grant mission, the Library also serves as an information resource for all the citizens of Oklahoma through both direct access to its extensive collections and special services and by sharing these resources as needed with other libraries in the state.

Vision Statement

As the academic heart of the University, the Library will be responsive to the needs of its constituents, will emphasize cooperative arrangements with other libraries, and will maximize the application of state-of-the-art technology to facilitate speedier and ever wider access to needed information. To serve the university community fully, the library must:

- Provide the best services, strongest collections and state-of-the-art information technologies for faculty, students and staff;
- Bring together in its collections the results of research and scholarship as well as a rich diversity of opinions and human experiences;
- Be a place where everyone is free to pursue knowledge without fear of disclosure or censorship;
- Lead Oklahoma academic libraries in building cooperative services, collections and applications of technology to serve all Oklahomans;
- Hire service oriented faculty, staff, and student assistants who represent diverse cultural and ethnic backgrounds.
