Apply for OARS Funds
http://libguides.colostate.edu/c.php?g=149709&p=986904
Articles published in commercial journals will not be eligible for funding, even if the journal has an option to make individual articles openly available. Articles from commercial journals that will be made open access 6-12 months after the initial publication date to fulfill federal mandates will not be considered for funding.

Reimbursement will not cover the cost of reprints, color illustrations, non-OA page charges, etc.

Articles that are supported by a gift or grant from a foundation, institution or agency that allows granted funds to be used for article processing fees are not eligible for reimbursement.

Applications will be reviewed by CSU Libraries and a decision for funding support will be communicated to the author within 5 working days of submission.

Reimbursement will be made once the article has been accepted for publication and the author has provided a copy of the publisher’s invoice to the Libraries. Reimbursement could take up to 3 weeks after invoice submission.

The author must deposit the article into CSU’s digital repository within 6 months of publication. Authors should review journal criteria to ensure they are complying with copyright.

Authors may apply to reserve funds before an article is submitted to an OA journal to ensure that money is available when the article is accepted. Reserved funds will be held for 6 months, at which time unused money will be returned to the pool. If an article has been accepted, the acceptance letter may be used to extend the 6-month reservation period.

Funding applications may be submitted at any time when the OARS Fund is open, although reimbursement cannot be processed until an article is accepted and the author has been invoiced. To ensure that funds are available to subsidize an article, authors are encouraged to apply for OARS funds when they submit an article that will incur open access fees.

By checking the boxes below, I attest to the following:

- The publication where the work will appear is openly accessible (i.e., no charge to readers or readers' institutions) in its entirety. For journal articles: the journal named in the application form is an established "pure" open access publication, i.e., every article in the journal is freely available.
- The funds I am requesting will be used for publication fees (including page charges) and submission fees.
- In my estimation, the fees charged by the publisher are reasonable. They are based on a standard fee schedule (please provide URL).
